1) Our commitment

VectorFoundry is committed to providing a website that is accessible to as many people as possible, including people with disabilities.

2) Measures we take

We aim to support accessibility through practical measures, including:

- Readable typography and sufficient color contrast where possible
- Keyboard navigability for key interactions
- Clear headings and structured content
- Alternative text for meaningful images where feasible
- Ongoing review as the site evolves

3) Limitations

This site is built on a third-party platform (Wix). Some components or embedded elements may have limitations outside our direct control. We will make reasonable efforts to address issues we can control.

4) Feedback and contact

If you experience difficulty accessing any part of this site or want to report an accessibility issue, please contact VectorFoundry using the email address published on the site footer. Include details about the page/section and the issue you encountered, and we will do our best to help.
